Army Roman Catholic Newsletter

Welcome

From

*The Revd. Fr. Stephen Sharkey CF
Principal Roman Catholic Chaplain (Army)*

Welcome to Issue 42 of the Army Roman Catholic Newsletter.

As the joy of Christmas still echoes in our hearts, we step gently into a new year filled with promise. The light of Christ, born among us, continues to guide our days, inviting us to carry hope forward, to trust in God's faithfulness, and to begin this year renewed in faith, love, and service.

We wish you all a happy, healthy and peaceful 2026.

Beginning the New Year in Prayer and Hope

As the light of Christmas continues to glow and we step into a new year filled with hope, prayer offers us a steady anchor for both body and mind. In the quiet moments we take to pray, we find more than spiritual comfort, we encounter a practice that can calm the heart, ease inner burdens, and renew our strength. Especially at this turning point of the year, prayer invites us to carry the peace of Christ forward, nurturing psychological resilience and physical well-being while opening us to trust, healing, and hope for what lies ahead.

Prayer touches the human person in deeply holistic ways, shaping not only our spiritual lives but also our physical and psychological well-being. In moments of prayer, the body is invited into rest, breathing slows, tension eases, and the nervous system finds calm. This stillness can reduce stress and fatigue, allowing the body to recover and regain balance in a world that often feels rushed and demanding.

Psychologically, prayer creates space for reflection, meaning, and hope. It helps quiet anxious thoughts, strengthens emotional resilience, and offers comfort during times of uncertainty or loss. By placing worries into God's care, prayer can ease feelings of isolation and foster a sense of trust, gratitude, and inner peace. Over time, this regular turning toward prayer can shape how a person responds to challenges, encouraging patience, clarity, and a deeper awareness of God's presence in everyday life.

As we move forward from Christmas into the new year, prayer becomes a steady companion, grounding us in hope, renewing our strength, and gently transforming both mind and body through its quiet but powerful grace.

May we be encouraged to make prayer a daily habit in the year ahead, whether in moments of quiet gratitude, honest struggle, or simple presence before God. In doing so, we open ourselves to healing, balance, and hope, allowing prayer to shape us into more grounded, peaceful, and compassionate people.

Pope Leo: Start today to build a year of peace

By Kielce Gussie

At his first Angelus greeting of 2026, Pope Leo urges everyone to "build a year of peace, by disarming our hearts and refraining from every form of violence."

Greeting around 40,000 people gathered in Saint Peter's Square on the first day of 2026, Pope Leo XIV extended his heartfelt wishes for peace and every good to them. He also shared his best wishes to the President of the Italian Republic, Sergio Mattarella.

In his words following the recitation of the Angelus prayer, the Pope pointed out that for the last 58 years—at the wish of Pope Saint Paul VI in 1968—January 1st has been celebrated as the World Day of Peace. In his own message for that day, Pope Leo recalled the greeting "the Lord suggested" to him after being elected to the papacy: "Peace be with you all!" This peace, he continued, "is unarmed and disarming, which comes from God, a gift of his unconditional love, and is entrusted to our responsibility."

With this responsibility, the Holy Father challenged everyone, with Christ's grace, to start today to "build a year of peace, disarming our hearts and refraining from all violence."

He acknowledged that many people and organizations around the world already dedicate themselves to ending violence and have created countless initiatives for building peace. Specifically, the Pope highlighted a national march which took place on the evening of 31 December in Catania, Italy, as well as a march to be held by members of the Community of Sant'Egidio. Finally, he took a moment to greet students and teachers from Richland, New Jersey, in the United States.

Recalling the 800th anniversary of the death of Saint Francis of Assisi, Pope Leo closed his Angelus greetings with the Saint's blessing taken from Sacred Scripture: "The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace." The Pope added his own wishes that Mary, the Mother of God "guide us on our journey in the new year."

The Angelus Prayer

The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.
And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.
Hail Mary, etc...
Behold the handmaid of the Lord.
Be it done unto me according to Your Word.
Hail Mary, etc...

And the Word was made Flesh.
And dwelt among us.
Hail Mary, etc...

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.
That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.
Let us pray:
Pour forth, we beseech You, O Lord,
Your Grace into our hearts;
that as we have known the incarnation of Christ,
Your Son by the message of an angel,
so by His Passion and Cross
we may be brought to the glory of His Resurrection.
Through the same Christ, Our Lord.

Amen.

Former Bishop of the Forces & Bishop of Arundel & Brighton is appointed Archbishop of Westminster

On 19th December 2025, his Holiness Pope Leo XIV appointed the Right Reverend Richard Moth as Archbishop of Westminster.

Ordained to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Southwark on 3 July 1982, Archbishop-elect Moth has served as Bishop of Arundel and Brighton since 2015. Prior to that, he was the Catholic Bishop of the Forces from 2009 to 2015.

Archbishop-elect Moth will become the 12th Archbishop of Westminster, succeeding Cardinal Vincent Nichols, who has served in the role since 2009. Cardinal Nichols will now become Apostolic Administrator of the Diocese of Westminster until Archbishop-elect Moth is Installed at Westminster Cathedral on Saturday, 14 February 2026.

On hearing of his appointment, Archbishop-elect Moth said:

"I am moved greatly by the trust that Pope Leo has placed in me, in appointing me to the Diocese of Westminster. As I prepare to move to the Diocese, I am so grateful for the support being given to me by Cardinal Vincent Nichols at this time. He has given dedicated service to the Diocese and will be missed greatly.

"Serving the Diocese of Arundel and Brighton has given me the wonderful opportunity of sharing the Church's mission with lay faithful and clergy, and I give thanks for the many blessings of these last ten years.

"My first task will be to get to know the priests and people of Westminster and I look forward, now, to serving them. With them and building on the firm foundations that have been laid by so many down the years, I look forward to continuing the great adventure that is the life of the Church and witness to the Gospel."

Cardinal Vincent Nichols said:

"I am delighted at this news. Archbishop-elect Richard will bring to our Diocese many gifts and considerable episcopal experience from his years of ministry in the Diocese of Arundel and Brighton, and before that as Bishop of the Forces. I look forward very much to his Installation as our new Archbishop on Saturday, 14 February 2026. It is, of course, St Valentine's Day, as well as the Feast of Saints Cyril and Methodius, co-Patrons of Europe.

"I remember being present in Westminster Cathedral on 29 September 2009 for the Episcopal Ordination of Bishop Richard as Bishop of the Forces. So today I can say: 'Welcome back, dear Bishop Richard. You are most welcome indeed.'"

May we wish Bishop Richard many congratulations and blessings and keep him in our prayers as he prepares for his new ministry.

Exercise Suman Warrior 2025

by Fr. David Burke CF - Chaplain to 1st Battalion Irish Guards

At this time of writing, I have been the chaplain for the 1st Battalion Irish Guards for the past three months, half of which I have been 'out the door' on exercise. Join the army - see the world. Join 'the micks' - go to the furthest parts of the World.

At the beginning of November, I accompanied the Irish Guards as they participated on Ex Suman Warrior 25, which this year was in New Zealand.

Suman Warrior is a five yearly land-based command post exercise (CPX) conducted by the five member nations: Singapore, United Kingdom Malaysia, Australia and New Zealand. This year, the exercise was generously hosted by the New Zealand Defence Force at Linton Military Camp, near Palmerston North.

The Five battle groups, representing each of the partners, devised their own tactical response to a conflict scenario drawn up by the team at the New Zealand Army's 1st (New Zealand) Brigade and the Army Training Group's Mission Command Training Centre. The exercise not only gave an opportunity to test tactical skills in a high-intensity environment but supported some incredibly talented military minds from ally and partner nations to plan and execute military operations together, strengthening collective tactical planning and shared expertise.

To quote Colonel van Welie, of New Zealand Army's 1st Brigade: "It's vitally important to train alongside our allies and some of our closest partners in the Indo-Pacific and it's a real honour to host this exercise at Linton. Exercises like these, which fundamentally revolve around building strong partnerships and working together to protect our region, also encourage exchanged learnings and tactical knowledge which can only enhance our operational interoperability in the future."

It wasn't all war-gaming during the exercise, though. We also participated in the hotly contested International Sports competition. I'm pleased to say that the Irish Guards secured a first place against strong competition from the other forces. The events included volleyball and tug of war with the 1st Battalion Irish Guards demonstrating exceptional teamwork and determination, but I'm certain having their chaplain participating in the 'tug of war' team, got them over the Line. 😊

Talking of chaplains, the chaplains of Linton Camp warmly welcomed their overseas colleague to New Zealand. As well as their welcome, it was good to share with them different experiences of working in military chaplaincy. NB: Their coffee is also very good.

I was honoured to be asked to lead the Armistice Day Service at Linton where we remembered those from home and in New Zealand who have given their lives in places of war and conflict. We will remember them.

We left Ex Suman Warrior for the long journey home but armed with great memories made, new experiences gained and great hospitality enjoyed, as well as the making of some new friends. Thank you to the New Zealand Defence force for such a great and unforgettable welcome and experience.

Ministry in Motion

Fr. Volodymyr Sampara who is currently deployed in Estonia sent in some photographs from Christmas Eve Mass in their chapel on the 24th December. There were around 120 soldiers together with the Commanding Officer and a few French representatives. There was some beautifully performed hymn singing by the Fijians as well as carols that were sung together. Holy Mass was celebrated on the 26th December in the city of Tartu with the Estonian & Ukrainian Catholic community and Christmas carols were sung by youth of the parish.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION?

Got Questions

Are you feeling stuck or not sure what to do next?

Spiritual direction is a special time where you can talk to someone about your thoughts, feelings, and faith. It's a bit like having a guide who helps you listen to God and notice how God is working in your life.

The person you talk to is called a spiritual director.

You can talk about anything, things that make you happy or sad, things that confuse you, or big questions about life and faith.
