TODAY'S COMMEMORATION

In a message for World Youth Day 2021, Pope Francis, reflecting on the dramatic conversion of St. Paul the Apostle, makes a series of appeals to young people encouraging them to "Stand up. I appoint you as a witness of what you have seen." (cf. Acts 26:16). The complete text is on the noticeboard and Bishopric website.

PURCHASING OPPORTUNITIES

Today is the final day of our charitable Table Top sale. Next Sunday, 28th November for one day only there will be a reduction of 50% on all items (less Christmas stock) in our Repository.

SPIRITUAL INVITATION

The ADoRE programme continues next Saturday, 27th November with an online mini-retreat. Details are on the noticeboard and registration may be made at: bit.ly/ADORENOV2021

ADVENT COURSES

The first of four evening sessions will be at 1900hrs, preceded by Mass at 1830hrs, on Tuesday, 30th November. Please complete the form at the back of church to assist with planning. In addition, a five session free-of-charge online course led by Mauro Iannicelli, studying the Advent Sunday Gospels, will begin at 1900hrs this Wednesday, 24th November. Further information and registration is available at: www.comeandsee.org/advent

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION

Our next First Holy Communion Course will commence in January 2022 with the Mass celebrated on Sunday, 19th June. Registration Forms are now available at the back of church.

AND FINALLY ...

... flattery is like cologne; something to be smelt, not swallowed.

With every blessing
