Great Amen: Said

Agnus Dei: Said

The obligation for the faithful to attend Holy Mass on a Sunday or Holy Day of Obligation has been reinstated. Pastoral consideration for the vulnerable and those isolating is imperative and appropriate dispensations remain in place for them.

WELCOME EVERYONE

Please observe sensible precautions when entering and leaving the church by sanitising your hands. Face coverings are no longer mandatory, but may be worn as a matter of personal choice.

For our celebration today you will require a Mass Sheet, a hymn book and a copy of any Mass Settings that we are using, all of which are available from the Welcome Team.

The children will go to their liturgy with the Catechetical Team following the introduction to the Mass and return at the offertory. After Mass refreshments are served in the church hall.

FAITHFUL CALLING

Prisons in England and Wales have weathered a succession of crises since 1947. In an inspiring book, drawing on his decades of service as a Governor, Brendan O'Friel, an alumni of Stonyhurst, considers the impact of cell overcrowding and regime destruction on both staff and prisoners. The consequential inability to reduce re-offending, he argues, generates continuing threats to public safety. Further information at: www.prisonsgovernorjournal.com

GLOBAL INTERACTION

The General Assembly of the United Nations established the International Day of Remembrance of and Tribute to the Victims of Terrorism to be commemorated annually on 21st August, in order to honour and support the victims and survivors of terrorism and to promote and protect the full enjoyment of their human rights and fundamental freedoms. In addition, it also designated 22nd August as the International Day Commemorating the Victims of Acts of Violence Based on Religion or Belief recognizing the importance of providing victims of acts of violence based on religion or belief and members of their families with appropriate support and assistance in accordance with applicable law. More information is available via: www.un.org/en/observances

PAPAL REFLECTIONS

Pope Francis thanks small and medium-sized businesses for their work to save their livelihoods and their employees in his August prayer video at: www.youtube.com/watch?v=sOObhMphBtM

CHARITABLE ENGAGEMENT

As advertised last week, Jackie White will be hosting a TEA@3 party at her home in support of the Phyllis Tuckwell Hospice from 1500hrs to 1730hrs this Wednesday, 24th August. In addition to the consumable part of the event, there will a Silent Auction of watercolour paintings. Everyone is invited to drop in at any time without an appointment at: 4 Denman Close, Fleet. GU51 3EP.

SAINT BERNADETTE

With The Bishopric of the Forces hosting the relic tour from Wednesday 7th to Thursday 8th September, stewards will be required to assist visitors during opening hours. A list is at the back of church for volunteers to kindly add their names.

AND FINALLY ...

... it's a well-known fact that a sock lost in a dryer comes back as a Tupperware lid that doesn't fit any container in the cupboard.

With every blessing
Fr Nick
