Knitting is generally thought of as being a craft for women, but many moons ago knitting was predominately a “male thing”. In fact so popular was knitting in the 1500s that men would often form themselves into knitting unions. The first knitting union was founded in Paris in 1527, and you guessed it – it was a men only thing!

If you are the point of contact for a knitting group or church could you please pass this newsletter onto members of your team and if possible display this on your church noticeboard.
